

Thanks for helping educate the public that the Equal Rights Amendment has met the requirements outlined in Article V to be added to our Constitution.

There can be NO discussion of candidates/races (funding requirements).

You CAN ask if someone is registered to vote, wants to check their registration, and/or knows how to vote early and in person (the ideal combo).

Only engage in conversations about EQUALITY and do not get baited into discussing candidates/parties/races. Someone could have a camera rolling.

Oops! if you say something you shouldn't, mop it up with, "Sorry, that's my personal opinion and not the position of VoteEqualityUS."

Equal Rights Amendment

Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

TALKING POINTS

- ✓= The Equal Rights Amendment IS part of our Constitution because it has met all the requirements to be added to the Constitution. Thus far, the federal government refuses to recognize it.
- ✓= 168 international constitutions guarantee gender equality and so should ours!
- ✓= The Equal Rights Amendment will protect all Americans from sex discrimination, including our LGBTQ+ citizens.
- ✓= The Constitution provides greater protection than laws, which can be easily changed; over 90% of Americans support constitutional gender equality.
- ✓= Sex discrimination in the United States costs us $2 Trillion annually.

More questions from a guest?

VoteEquality.US/FAQ or Artists4ERA.org